

Old Dauphin Way Association

Newsletter, 2017-1

January 12, 2017 – ODWA General Meeting, 7:00 PM, St. Mary's

Big plans are in store for our organization in 2017 and we would like the participation of our neighborhood members to make it a fun and productive year. We will be sending out dues notifications after our January meeting, as well as an events calendar for the upcoming year.

Mark your calendar to attend our first meeting of 2017. In addition to having a schedule speaker, we will be voting on and installing the 2017 Board of Directors.

Our January speaker, Karlos Finley, will discuss Mobile's rich history from an African American perspective. Mr. Finley is the President of the Board of Directors of the Dora Franklin Finley African American Heritage Trail and will describe some important cultural landmarks that his organization highlights on its tour. Mr. Finley has practiced law in Mobile for 10 years and is a member of the Boteler, Finley, and Wolfe law firm. Currently he serves as a municipal judge. Join us to broaden your knowledge of our diverse city.

January 24, 2017 – ODWA Social at G's Bakery, 5:00 – 7:00 PM,

Stop by on your way home from work on Tuesday evening and check out one of our district's newest ventures. G's Bakery & Cafe is located at 1714 Dauphin Street. Try some of their great food and baked goods, have a brew of glass or wine, and spend some time with your neighbors.

Upcoming Events – Mark Your Calendar

Our February newsletter will provide details on the following upcoming activities:

Saturday, April 1 – Spring Plant Swap

Saturday, April 8 – ODWA District wide Yard Sale

Sunday, May 7 – ODWA Picnic